A STORY WITH A MORAL

One of the most persistent advertisers in the history of success was Robinson Crusoe. He knew what he wanted . . . a ship . . . so he put up an advertisement for one. He hung a shirt on a pole, at the top of his island, that in the language of the sea was plain to every seafaring man. The distribution was small . . . there was no other medium but time. He changed his copy . . . as one garment after another was flayed out . . . at the end he got what he wanted. Suppose Crusoe had taken down his signal after a time and declared "Advertising Doesn't Pay." Where would he and his story be?

Turning bad accounts into paying accounts

No Collection... No Charge

So many agencies advertise a certain rate for the collection of delinquent accounts . . . but when they remit to you there are deductions for legal fees. This is not the case with our organization. Our rates are clearly set out so that there can be no misunderstanding.

¶ We have proven our ability to collect to many lines of business; we will be glad to give you names as references.

Why not begin right now to get your receivables in good shape?

Send us, on your own letterhead, a list of the accounts you find hard to collect . . . or call us and we will be glad to supply you with a convenient listing form.

Fred'k C. Robins & Co.
